

INVESTING IN SWEDEN: AMBROSETTI & ISA

The Swedish market is highly competitive, at an international level, in terms of:

- Real-time access to advanced and innovative technologies.
- High quality wood resources and experienced workforce.
- The existence of particularly leading-edge productive areas and clusters in the medical, biotechnology, information technology, automobile safety and many other sectors.
- The highly open nature and focus of Swedish culture.
- An extremely stable political and macroeconomic climate.
- Very high levels of productivity.

Invest in Sweden Agency (ISA) is a Swedish government agency that exists to attract inward foreign investment.

With a highly professional staff, the organisation, operating on behalf of the government, is in contact with all the regional authorities and provides assistance for potential investors in Sweden.

AMBROSETTI IS ISA'S REPRESENTATIVE IN ITALY, AND AIMS TO ASSIST ITS CLIENTS IN:

- Relations with ISA.
- The evaluation of possible investments in Sweden.
